Philosophy on Teaching

In order to ensure you qualify for RGD Certification as a Design Educator, we ask that you answer two questions related to your overall views on design education.

Members of our RGD Evaluation Committee will review your responses to ensure you are applying under the correct category.

Philosophy on Teaching

How does your past/present knowledge of design (and your philosophy) inform your teaching methods and, if applicable, the design of your projects?

What would constitute an 'ideal [graphic] design education'?

Rationale Submission

In order to ensure your Portfolio Presentation goes smoothly, we ask that you submit descriptions/rationales and images for 6 of any of the following Curriculum Design, Course Design, Lesson Plans, Professional Work, Academic & Research Papers, Publishing/Conference documentation and Professional Design Work, which you plan to present to your 3 Portfolio Evaluators.

Members of our RGD Evaluation Committee will conduct a preliminary survey of the materials you have submitted to ensure that our Portfolio Evaluators have the material they will need to make an effective assessment of your abilities and skills as a design educator.
