

Registered Graphic Designer Certification Process Results

Name:

Date:

Your Overall Results: Portfolio Presentation & Online Test } PASS

Portfolio Presentation Review Criteria	Marks from Reviewer A	Marks from Reviewer B	Marks from Reviewer C
Role & contribution in each project in written and verbal submission, e.g. Intermediate Designer, Senior Designer, Art Director, Creative Director, etc. If you were in a team, clearly identify your role and contribution
Project brief , including assignment background and design objectives
Approach to design process , including research, analysis or other information gathering and investigation
The design process , from initial concept exploration and presentation through to acceptance by client
How the design solution and deliverables satisfied project goals and objectives
Appropriate handling of special or unique circumstances and/or challenges
Ability to create and develop your own design ideas that communicate solutions to a client's objectives in at least one piece
Usability (e.g. ease of use, choice of media, readability, adequately informative, target audience accuracy)
Composition (e.g. use of grids, visual hierarchy, balance and contrast, visual impact, fluid flow of information)
Typography (e.g. readability and legibility, kerning, choice of typeface, typographic craftsmanship and best practices)
Imagery (e.g. scaling and cropping, reproduction quality, choice, photography/illustration, art direction quality, photo/image editing)
Colour (e.g. strategic use of colour, understanding of colour theory)
Comments from reviewers:
Possible evaluation results are Below Standard; Meets Standard; High Standard and Outstanding.

Based on your portfolio presentation evaluation you are required to pass /5 sections of the online test. (NOTE: All candidates must pass the Accessibility and Ethics sections.)

OR

Based on your seniority status (15+ years of professional experience) you are required to pass: 2 out of the 5 sections of the online test: namely, the mandatory the Accessibility and Ethics sections.

Online Test Results

Design Research

Design Principles

Accessibility

Business

Ethics

Total Sections Passed:

/

PASS!

Possible Evaluation Results:

	Below Standard	Meets Standard	High Standard	Outstanding
Design Research	10/15	11-12/15	13/15	14-15/15
Design Principles	9/15	10-11/15	12-13/15	14-15/15
Accessibility	10/15	11/15	12-13/15	14-15/15
Business	10/15	11/15	12-13/15	14-15/15
Ethics	10/15	11-12/15	13/15	14-15/15

The RGD Certification methodology for determining pass or fail is based on a candidate's eligibility and proven aptitude to meet a level consistent with one's peers. Measurements are determined against statistical median scores with tests conducted to ascertain that relevant criteria have been met. Questions and scenarios continuously evolve, in keeping with the dynamic nature of the graphic communications and design profession.